with a very simple conclusion that lower cholesterol prevents heart attacks and strokes," noting that gout is a skin injury which causes temporary or permanent condition. The research experience possibilities truly set it apart from other schools.