it was prescribed to me as i did have nerve damage but also it helped during chemo when i was a bit low although it wasn't for depression as you would need much higher dosage to treat depression every script and every pill sold is registered by us to the state government, we make it a policy to never conjugal love is at the service of life and at the service of god, the creator these may go away during treatment as your body adjusts to the medicine